1 Documentation Information

1.1 Printer category

This list consists of the following categories as defined below:

Accredited Security Cheque Printers

Printers who can undertake the whole of the cheque printing process including the coloured security backgrounds, company logos, cheque skeleton (such as payee and signature lines), bank name and branch details, sort code and account numbers and MICR code line. These printers are also authorised to print Bank Giro Credits.

Accredited Security Cheque Personalisation Printers

This category of printer does not print the security background on cheques, but can undertake all the other printing requirements, including MICR encoding. These printers are also authorised to print Bank Giro Credits.

Approved Disaster Recovery Sites

Approved by Pay.UK for the provision of business continuity/disaster recovery facilities in respect of cheque personalisation printing.

Certified Bank Giro Credit Printers

Members of this scheme are authorised to print Bank Giro Credits.

List of Approved Data Mailer Suppliers

Customers wishing to use cheques in data mailers require approval by Pay.UK.
